Our Story

TC's Tavern was originally called PJ's and was established in 1969 by Tom Stedman. The name was changed to TC's in 1970, after Tom & Chris got married. The original TC's was next door to where TC's stands today. A new building was built in 1974. Many "Islanders" have spent time here hanging with friends, and meeting new ones. Our motto has always been "You are a stranger here but once..."

Tom's wife, Chris, took over the business after Tom passed away in 1991. All of Tom and Chris' children grew up around the bar, as children, then adults, and either work at TC's now or have in the past.

Recently, in 2015, our name was changed to TC's Island Bar & Grille and many new updates have been made to the business. The most significant change is the addition of a full time chef to the TC's staff, who adds a creative touch to all of our recipes.

TC's sponsors many softball, basketball, and volleyball teams, and has a volleyball league in the sand courts behind the building. You can watch a game on one of the many TV's or play a game of darts or pool.
