Niagara Gazette — One stroke helped the Grand Island golf squad sneak by Niagara-Wheatfield in a battle for third place in the Niagara Frontier League as Kevin Borowicz's ninth medalist honor of the season led the Vikings to a 259-260 win at River Oaks.

Borowicz shot an even-par 36 to pace the field while Aaron Schauger and Jacob Sweeney added a 37 and 42, respectively, for the Vikings, who improved to 6-4 in NFL play.

Zach Dubuc led the way for the Falcons (5-3 NFL) with a 41 and John Liberti and John Anderson each added a 42 in the loss.

Vikings coach Craig Warthling said it's the team's first win over Wheatfield in a few seasons.

"It's probably our biggest win all season," Warthling said. "They've had our number the past four or five years. It's nice to get that W."
