NIAGARA GAZETTE niagara-gazette.com

March 28, 2012

Banker named NFL Player of the Year

Staff Reports Niagara Gazette

Grand Island senior guard Kallie Banker was named Niagara Frontier League Player of the Year, highlighting the NFL girls basketball first team, which was selected by the league's coaches.

Other first teamers were Lockport senior forward Emma Sobieraski, Grand Island junior center Cassie Oursler, Lockport senior forward Marisa Guyton and Niagara-Wheatfield junior guard Melissa Smith.

The second team was comprised of Kenmore West senior guard Jessica Jolley, Niagara Falls sophomore guard Victoria Pryor, Niagara-Wheatfield junior guard Rachel Pawlak, Lockport sophomore center Sara Franco and Kenmore West senior guard Jenna Panepinto.

The third team included Lewiston-Porter senior guard Ryleigh Fitzgerald, Kenmore East senior guard Gabe Boldinski, Niagara Falls freshman guard Toni Polk, Kenmore West senior guard Lexi Panepinto, Lockport senior guard Patti Burdick and Kenmore West senior guard Lauren Czarniak.

n Wilson junior guard Jamie Curry was a Niagara-Orleans League first teamer, while senior center Courtney Murray was a second-team pick.