Taken from us too soon, John Costanzo was a loving husband of 18 years and devoted father of 5 children ranging in age from 6 to 16.

John was a Newfane School special education teacher for 23 years. During his time at Newfane he was Senior Class Advisor for 20 years, head negotiator for Newfane Teacher's Association for the last 10 years and was looking forward to coaching the JV soccer team this past Fall. John was awarded the NYS United Teacher's Local Leadership Award in 2010.

John worked as a general contractor in the summer and was a recreational soccer and hockey coach.

John's pride and joy were his children. Their success was his #1 priority.
