

Using Science to Advance...

- ...Biodiversity
- ...Compassionate Coexistence
- ...Humane Policies
- ...Sustainable Practices
- ...Preservation of the Wild!

Saturday, October 27th
9:30am – 3:30pm
Erie Community College North
Kittinger Hall – Lecture Hall K-100
6205 Main Street
Williamsville, NY 14221

Exhibitors, children's activities, presentations, workshops, wildlife ambassadors (such as birds of prey)
 and more!

| 9:30 - 11:00 | 11:00 - 11:30 | 11:30 - 12:00 | 12:00 - 1:00 | 1:00 - 1:30 | 1:30 - 2:00 | 2:00 - 3:30 |
|---|---|--|--|--|---|--|
| Workshop: Advocating for Animals—Turning Compassion into Action!  Brian Shapiro, Humane Society of US | WildED Talk: Climate Change and the Northern Hardwood Forest  Mary Jo Graham, Oakmoss Education | WildED Talk: Coexisting with Wildlife, Natural History, & Resolving Backyard Conflicts  Allie Booth, SPCA of Erie County | Seneca Thanksgiving Address Explanation  Stephen Gordon, Seneca Nation | WildED Talk: Does Science Alone Guide Animal Protection Policy?  Brian Shapiro, Humane Society of US | WildED Talk: Importance of Native Plants to the Ecosystem  Lyn Chimera, Lessons from Nature | Workshop: Reasons and Strategies for Talking About Climate Change  Don Duggan-Haas, Paleontological Research Institution |

Co-Sponsored by Science Demands Action & Citizen Coalition for Wildlife and Environment
 Event page with details at <https://www.facebook.com/events/987145454798839/>

