

Friends of the Grand Island Memorial Library present Sophie Knab

Thursday, May 24th @ 6:30 pm

Sophie Hodorowicz Knab will lead a historical discussion of her book,
“Wearing the Letter P: Polish Women as Forced Laborers in Nazi Germany”.

From Amazon.com: “Compelled to learn more about her own mother’s experience as a forced laborer, Sophie Hodorowicz Knab embarked on a personal quest to uncover details about this overlooked aspect of World War II history. She conducted extensive research in archives in the U.S., London, and Warsaw for over 14 years to piece together facts and individual stories.”

Copies of the book will be available for sale and refreshments will be provided.

Directly preceding the author presentation will be the annual Friends business meeting and election of officers.

Please consider joining and become a Friend of the library!

Grand Island Memorial Library
1715 Bedell Rd. ● 773-7124

This program is sponsored and funded by the Friends of the Grand Island Memorial Library.

www.BuffaloLib.org