

The Grand Island Lion

January 2016

www.gilions.com

Split Club Jackpot is $103.50

Lion Tom Witkowski drew the seven of clubs at our last meeting. The Lion that draws the Ace of hearts will win the pot.

Hello Lions,

It has been a productive 2015 so let's keep the Lion's momentum going into 2016 and beyond. Please try and attend our monthly meetings if you are not playing "Snowbird".

Happy New Year!

Lion President Tom

Program: TBA

Bon-Ton:

We raised a total of $1295.90 from the Bon-Ton Community Days Coupon book sale. It was budgeted at $560 making it an overwhelming success.

Sunshine News:

Condolences go out to Lion Dave Chervinsky on the loss of his Brother.

Volunteers Needed to sell 50/50 tickets for the Miracle League at First Niagara Center. This will be done at the Sabres game of April 8th 2016. Contact Lion Dick Crawford if you can help.

The Grand Island Lions held their annual Christmas Party on December 9th 2015 at Byblos Resort and Spa. Lion Fred Ruocco and his Wife Tammy hosted the party and entertained everyone with holiday games, song and good cheer. The Club collected donations for the Neighbors Foundation as well as gifts for the Erie County SPCA and many bags of clothing for Journeys End, a refugee resettlement organization.
