

School music earns national listing

News Staff Reports

Published: May 9, 2012, 12:00 AM

Updated: May 9, 2012, 6:42 AM

Advertisement

The National Association of Music Merchants' Foundation has included the Grand Island School District on its listing of Best Communities for Music Education across the country for its commitment to and support of music programs.

Other Western New York school districts that made the listing include Albion Central, Frontier Central, Kenmore- Town of Tonawanda, West Seneca and Williamsville Central.