

Erie County Sheriffs Office Media Release Summary

Dates: 02/28/2023 to 03/05/2023

The Erie County Sheriff's Office responded to 303 calls the week of this report. Below is a sampling of the noteworthy incidents in Grand Island.

Date	Type	Street	Narrative
2/28	Larceny	Luther Ln.	Deputies were called to a home for missing jewelry. The homeowner said she just discovered that around $10,000 worth of jewelry had been taken sometime over the last year or two. They happened to be moving stuff out of the spare room and found the jewelry box empty. Detective bureau is handling the investigation.
3/1	Suspicious Vehicle	Warner Dr.	Deputies received a call of a vehicle with no plates parked in the road. Deputies arrived to find a Chevy Impala in the road with no plates and no valid registration. The vehicle was towed and contact was eventually made with the owner who said she signed it over to a male friend last year and has no idea why it's there. All parties advised.
3/2	Suspicious Incident	E. River Rd.	Deputies were called by female stating that she needed to see the police. When deputies arrived and spoke with her it was clear that she was having some altered mental thoughts of people impersonating her face and using her identity. Deputies spoke with boyfriend and confirmed. Female is going to get her mother to give her a ride to hospital in the morning.
3/2	Mental	Center Terrace	Deputies responded to a suicidal male claiming he has a .22 rifle. Deputies made contact with the male who was going through detox from alcohol and wants help. Male was transported by ambulance to ECMC on MHL 9.41 papers and the gun was secured by patrol and home was confirmed to be clear of any other weapons.
3/2	Disturbance	Staley Rd.	Deputies received a call from family saying that the 16 year old daughter is fighting the family with a flag pole and they are currently holding her down. Daughter was secured by patrol and evaluated for a shoulder injury. She was then transported by ambulance to ECMC for evaluation.
3/3	Larceny	Island Fun Center	Deputies received a call from manager at the Island Fun Center about a stolen package. An unknown male is on camera taking two bags of jolly ranchers out of the amazon package in front of their building. Patrol is handling the investigation.
3/5	Domestic Trouble	Deerwood Ln	Deputies were sent to a 911 open line call with a female saying, "get your hands off of me". Deputies arrived and spoke with both parties. They each had different stories and did not seem to want anything from patrol. The female took her belongings and left the residence and patrol filed a DIR report of the incident.
