- July 8th - The Drink that Lasts a Lifetime - Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD) —By Helen Weinstein
This interactive training will provide participants with an overview of new information on FASD. What strategies can be utilized to help women make healthy choices regarding alcohol consumption, and what to do if you suspect someone you work with has a child with FASD.
- July 22nd - Current Trends—By Sally Yageric & Mark Fenz
A presentation & display that no parent, community educator, teacher or mentor can afford to miss, with a “hands-on” opportunity to take a glimpse into a semi-secret subculture. Participants will learn what to look for if they suspect youth may be participating in the drug culture.
- August 5th - Creativity in the Classroom and Beyond—By Janice Burns, Jennifer DeMarsh & Amber Groeller
Using hands on, non-traditional methods and materials, facilitators will engage participants in activities that include music, literacy, art and creative games to reinforce learning. Suggestions for integrating subjects and curriculum topics will be offered.
- August 19th -Cyberbullying - What you Need to Know about Sexting, Facebook, etc.—By Mark Fenz
In this presentation, bullying issues that occur in and out of school will be discussed. The How, Where, and Why of bullying is covered. Bullying prevention as well as effective strategies to utilize in order to achieve a positive outcome will also be discussed.
